

American Corn Kitchen Completed.

PARIS, May 17.—United States Ambassador Porter and United States Commissioner General Peck participated to-day in the exercises of turning over to the exposition authorities the agricultural exhibit, known as the American Corn Kitchen, for demonstrating the use of corn as food. The kitchen was planned by Col. Clark E. Carr of Illinois.

The New York Times

Published: May 18, 1900

Copyright © The New York Times