

HITS AT NEW DEMOCRACY.

CITY HALL MAN ATTACKS AID TO HOPKINS FACTION.

Vincent H. Perkins Declares Recently Formed Tilden Club Is Designed to Undermine Old County Organization—Speech Meant to Warn Against Desertions to Political Intruder—Both Wings of Party Preparing for Hot Fight at Next Primaries.

Speaking for the City Hall faction of the organization, Vincent H. Perkins took occasion at the meeting of the County Democracy yesterday to make an attack on the recently formed Tilden Democracy. The Tilden Democracy, of which Congressman Feely is the head, is generally understood to be formed in aid of the Hopkins faction of the party, and this is supposed to be the reason for the speech.

Mr. Perkins' remarks were received with mingled emotions by his hearers. Members of the County Democracy who are on the pay-rolls of the City Hall applauded vigorously, but other members, including all the officers except Secretary Burke, were not all enthusiastic. President Powers seemed to take no interest at all in the orator's remarks.

Mr. Perkins told a long story of the hard luck which befell a farmer, who gratified his wife's desire for a pair of diamond earrings by mortgaging his farm in order to purchase them. Not only did she lose one of the earrings, but a cow was killed and the husband became blind, while the mortgage still remained.

"And that," concluded Mr. Perkins, "will be the fate of this so-called Democratic organization, which shall be nameless, which has been formed to undermine and take the place of the County Democracy.

Perkins Makes Meaning Clear.

When asked later whether he referred to the Carter Harrison league or the Tilden Democracy, Mr. Perkins replied:

"I certainly did not mean the Carter Harrison league. I never had any use anyhow for naming an organization after a dead man, and if I was to pick out a dead Democrat to name one after I would not select Samuel J. Tilden. If he had had any nerve he would have taken the seat in the White House to which he was entitled."

When told his new organization was not liked by one of the spokesmen for the city administration, John P. Hopkins laughed and said: "Let them fight it out; the more fights the better for the party."

Getting Ready for Fight.

That the Tilden Democracy was formed in the interest of the anti-City Hall faction of the party was pretty generally understood at the time of its incorporation, although Hopkins and his friends denied any connection with it. Since then it has gone along, reaching its organization out into the different wards and making ready for next year's primaries, when the battle for control will have to be fought out by the two factions. The open attack on it yesterday was taken, as a matter of course, to mean that Secretary Burke and his friends had awakened to the fact that there was an anti-Harrison club in the field, and that followers of the City Hall were warned to keep away from it in consequence.

Speech Not Entirely Acceptable.

The speech, however, did not meet with entire acceptance for the reason that the County Democracy is a long ways from being a City Hall organization. Almost every Democrat in the city who is on the city pay-rolls is a member of it, but at the same time there are a large number of members who are not on the pay-rolls, although most of them have tried to be. The officers of the club, from President Powers down, are opposed to the City Hall faction, with the exception of Secretary Burke.

"If I had my own way about the matter," said President Powers, "I would quit the whole business. I am really tired, and I told the truth the other day when I said I wanted to leave the Council. But the way things are going it looks as if I would have to stay and fight, and I imagine a lot of other people look at the situation the same way I do."

The club adjourned yesterday until Sept. 6.

OHIO DEMOCRATS ASSEMBLING

Leaders of Various Factions Gather at Columbus for Convention on Wednesday.

Columbus, O., July 7.—Leaders of the Democratic State convention, which meets next Wednesday morning, are all here today. The delegates meet by Congressional districts on Tuesday when the members of the committees are selected. As no effort will be made to endorse any one for Senator, and as the nomination of James Kilbourne for Governor is assured, only slight interest is being taken in the Committee on Credentials.

Much interest is being taken in the selection of members of the State Central committee, on which the McLean men have had a majority. The interests of Kilbourne and Mayor Tom L. Johnson of Cleveland, as well as of John R. McLean and of others, are involved in the new State organization. McLean and Mayor Johnson will not be here and friends are looking out for their interests.

Nearly all the leaders of what were known as gold Democrats are delegates to this convention, and they are opposing the platform views of Mayor Johnson of Cleveland and Mayor Jones of Toledo, as well as any reference whatever to the silver question.

Mrs. Josephine S. Yates Addresses Meeting at Quinn Chapel Under Auspices of Men's Sunday Club.

Mrs. Josephine Silone Yates of Kansas City, one of the leading colored women of the United States, addressed a large audience at Quinn Chapel yesterday afternoon on "Woman, a Factor in the Solution of the Race Question." The meeting was under the auspices of the Men's Sunday club. Mrs. Yates spoke of the race problem as a phase of sociology. A portion of her address, which received generous applause, referred to the social position of the colored woman.

"When colored men give colored women proper respect," said Mrs. Yates, "and when colored women conduct themselves in a way to be worthy of that respect, there will be little to fear from within or without."

Miss Blanche Shaw, Mrs. L. A. Davis, the Illinois organizer of the national association and Mrs. Agnes Moody of the Illinois Federation of Colored Women's Clubs made short addresses.
