

MIDNIGHT SHOW

The Chicago Defender (National edition) (1921-1967); Jul 1, 1922;
ProQuest Historical Newspapers The Chicago Defender (1910 - 1975)

pg. 3

MIDNIGHT SHOW

Arabic Temple No. 44 Has Great Program for Monday Night Show

A midnight show, given for the purpose of assisting the Arabic Temple patrol "On to Washington" will be given at the Grand theater on Monday night, July 3, the program to start at 11:30 sharp. The music will be furnished by the Shrine band and the different turns to be offered have been selected with the greatest discrimination. These include such stars as Sam Goode, blackface comedian; Miss Eulah Brown and Strappy Jones, the famous dancers from "Sunset"; Prof. Babero & Son, magicians and mentalists; Charles Settles, the silver-toned tenor; Little Nell Matilda Ritchie, the baby violinist and pupil of Mrs. Jackson's Piano and Violin school, and others. The prices are very nominal and a capacity audience should be in attendance.