

High Masons Hold Reunion

Western Consistory No. 28, Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite of Free Masonry of the United Supreme Council, 33rd and Last Degree, (Prince Hall Affiliation) whose Holy See is at Philadelphia, will celebrate the summer reunion beginning Friday, July 13, and ending July 15. The big Masonic event will be held at Tyree Hall, Francisco avenue and Lake street.

The occasion will mark the first time in the history of Western Consistory that a summer reunion has been held. Charles B. McMinn, undertaker and president of the Spring Class, and secretary Rudolph Johnson of the Chicago Defender will be hosts to aspirants for elevation.

Atty. Levi H. Morris, 33rd degree, announced that he has appointed three teams who will work with the regular team in assisting in conferring the degrees. The Ineffable Degrees will be conferred on Friday, July 13. The Philosophic Degrees, 15th to 29th inclusive, will be conferred on Saturday, July 14.

The Judicial and Chivavic Degrees including the 32nd Degree will be conferred on Sunday, July 15. Illustrious Robert H. Harper, 33rd Degree recording secretary general of the Holy Empire will be the grand lecturer and will be assisted by four assistant lecturers all of whom are Peers of the 33rd Degree.

Congressman Dawson, 33rd Degree, will be one of the assistant lecturers. Illustrious Frank M. Summers, 33rd Degree assistant state's attorney, East St. Louis, will give the vows of fealty and allegiance. He is deputy for Illinois. Seventeen instructors will assist.

The three-day ceremony will be highlighted by lectures, music, elevation ceremonies and reception, conferring of degrees, demonstrations and instructions. The sublime feast and banquet will be held Sunday, July 15, 5 p.m., at the Temple.

The other officials are John G. Tyree, 33rd Degree, 1st lieutenant; O. E. Vandeburg, second lieutenant; and Benjamin Armstead, grand secretary. Levi H. Morris is commander-in-chief.
