

Bound For Shrine Confab

DENVER BOUND — Pretty Miss Amanda Foulter, of Birmingham, Ala., smiles while Barney R. Goldsmith (right) and Wallace L. Johnson (second from left) check over last minute details with Smith Holdren, passenger agent for the Burlington railroad, as 19-car special train prepares to leave Chicago's Union station with 500 Shriners, their wives and friends, enroute to Denver, Col. to attend the 52nd annual session of the Imperial Council of the Ancient Egyptian Arabic Order of Nobles of the Mystic Shrine. Looking on is L. A. Doyle, Burlington flagman. Goldsmith is illustrious Potentate of Arabic Temple No. 41 of the Shriners in Chicago. Johnson is Past Potentate of Arabic Temple. Miss Foulter is a contestant in the Shrine Beauty and Talent pageant. — Defender photo.

Shriners And Gaiety Take Over Denver For Conclave

DENVER, Col.—Denver came out in its Sunday best this week as some 15,000 Shriners, delegates and guests converged on the city for the 52nd annual session of the Imperial Council of the Ancient Egyptian Arabic Order of Nobles of the Mystic Shrine of North and South America and its Jurisdiction, Inc. (Prince Hall affiliate), Aug. 16-21.

Shriners and their guests made plans for a full week of business and gaiety. Host chapters are the Syrian Temple and Syrian court.

Approximately 500 Shriners, wives and guests arrived in Denver Sunday from Chicago, aboard a 19-car special train. The contingent, representing Eastern, Southern and midwestern temples, met at Chicago's Union station where they boarded the special train.

Among those aboard the special train was pretty Miss Amanda Foulter, 18, of Birmingham, Ala., winner of Khedive Temple's (Birmingham) Beauty and Talent pageant. She was vying for national honors at the Shriners annual talent show here Wednesday.

The convention opened Sunday with registration at the Denver city auditorium. A twilight parade was held Monday.

Dr. Raymond E. Jackson is present Imperial Potentate of the fraternal order. He hails from Buffalo, N. Y.