

Lawyers Name McLendon To Second Term

The Cook County Bar association, with headquarters at 417 E. 47th st., has re-elected its entire roster of incumbent officers and board members.

James A. McLendon of 100 N. LaSalle st., was re-elected president. Other officers are:

George S. Barnes, Poindexter A. Orr and Edwin Hatfield, vice presidents; George White, general secretary; Jewel Stradford Rogers, treasurer; Levi H. Morris, financial secretary, and Alvin A. Turner, sergeant-at-arms.

Re-elected to the board of directors were the following members:

Lemuel E. Bentley, Zedrick T. Broden, Theodore F. Crawley, James T. Horton, James G. Lemon, jr., Carl T. Robinson, Lawrence E. Smith, jr., and Gloria E. Wilson.