

Bar Re-Elects Toles, Prexy

The Cook County Bar Association elected officers for 1961 at their regular December meeting. The 400 member legal group organized in 1914, celebrated its 46th consecutive year.

The Association also approved a resolution of the National Bar Association's Executive Committee asking for a meeting with President - Elect John F. Kennedy on his pre-election promise to the NBA to appoint more Negro federal judges.

Attorney Edward B. Toles was re-elected president. Other officers are: 1st vice president, James D. Crosson; 2nd vice president, Edwin C. Hatfield; 3rd vice president, Russell R. De Bow; general secretary, Theries C. Lindsey; treasurer, James G. Lemon, jr.; financial secretary, Levi H. Morris; sgt-at-arms, Charles J. Durham. The following were elected to the Association's Board of Directors: Frank A. Anglin, jr., Theodore F. Crawley, Glenn T. Johnson, Judge Sidney A. Jones jr., Charles F. Lane, William E. Peterson, John W. Rogers and Ernestine B. Washington.