

Crawley To Be Installed As Bar President

Theodore F. Crawley, prominent lawyer and civic leader recently elected president of the Cook County Bar Association, will be installed by Circuit Court Judge B. Fain Tucker on March 9 at the Sherman Hotel.

Other newly elected officers, who will be installed along with Crawley, are Glenn T. Johnson, 1st vice president; Russell R. DeBow, second vice president; W. E. Washington, third vice president; Theries Lindsey, general secretary; Levi H. Morris, financial secretary, and James G. Lemon, Jr., treasurer.

Elected to the board of directors were Frank Anglin, Jr., Judge James D. Crosson, Wilson Frost, Charles F. Lane, Judge Sidney A. Jones, Jr., William F. Peterson, Edward B. Toles and Mrs. Earnestine B. Washington.

Crawley said that he "promises to keep the association an instrument of service to the community," upon accepting the new office and the responsibility that goes along with it.