

County Bar Association To Honor 6 At Banquet

Four judges and two lawyers will be honored by the Cook County Bar Association at its 49th annual merit awards banquet Saturday, March 9 at 6:30 p.m. in the Bal Tabarin Room of the Sherman House.

Theodore F. Crawley, newly-elected president of the Association, announced that recipients of the Merit Awards will be Judges James D. Crosson and Richard A. Harewood of the Superior Court; Judges Edith S. Sampson and Sidney A. Jones of the Municipal Court; Attorney Oliver A. Clark in recognition of his 50 years of law practice; and Attorney Eugene W. Wood, president of the Association of Defense Lawyers, who will receive the coveted Richard E. Westbrooks Award for Distinguished Service.

The newly elected officers of the 49-year-old Cook County Bar Association to be installed at the banquet are Theodore F. Crawley, president; Glenn T. Johnson, first vice-president; Russell R. DeBow, second vice-president; W. Elbert Washington, third vice-president; Theries C. Lindsey, general secretary; Levi H. Morris, financial secretary; James G. Lemon, Jr., treasurer, and for the board of directors, Frank A. Anglin, Jr.; Judge James D. Crosson, Wilson Frost, Judge Sidney A. Jones, Jr.; Charles F. Lane, Willaim E. Peterson, Edward B. Toles and Ernestine B. Washington.