FOR DEFENDER CHARITIES

The Rolling Nobles, a scooter unit of Arabic Temple No. 44 Ancient Egyptian Arabic Order, Nobles of the Mystic Shrine rode their scooters to the offices of the Chicago Defender where they presented a check to Mrs. Marjorie Joyner for the Chicago Defender Charities. Later they presented a check to the Beatrice Caffrey Youth Service Inc. at 213 E. 50th st. This community group is dedicated to serving youth and the community for the prevention of juvenile delinquency. In keeping with their support of community agencies, the Nobles will present a check to the Jane Dent Home for the Aged at 4430 S. Vincennes, Saturday. A fund-raising dance featuring Count Basie will be held May 29 at the Aragon Ballroom. Proceeds will go to hospitals throughout the nation to further T.B. and Cancer research. Present at the Defender presentation were (from left) W. E. A. Langston, C. Byrd, W. Smith, C. Page, M. Green, K. Crimsmon, H. Wadlington, Joe Green, Al Williams, S. Kimmons and John Marshall.
