Holds 16th Annual Ball

The 16th Potentate's Ball and dinner dance honoring William McDonald, illustrious Potentate, of Arabic Temple, number 44, of Ancient Egyptian Arabic Order Nobels of the Mystic Shrine, was held in th Grand Ballroom of the Sherman House.

Nobles and their guests attended a reception followed by a dinner. Music for the gala event was furnished by the Eddie King Orchestra.

The black tie affair honored Potentate McDonald's successful year of leadership at the temple and other nobles who have worked in the fraternity during the past year.

Noble Vernell N. Fuller was general chairman for the affair with other past potentates of Arabic Temple serving as co-chairman: Melvin Harris, Samuel C. Smith, Earle D. Peterson, Leslie Gibson, Benjamin Gores, George E. Douglas, William H. Jones and John Perkins.
