

UNDERWRITERS MUTUAL INSURANCE COMPANY IN COURT CONTROVERSY

PRESIDENT AND AGENTS WITH-DRAW FROM ORGANIZA-
TION AND CREATE
NEW COMPANY

Attorney William J. Latham has obtained from the insurance department at Springfield a charter of incorporation for a Mutual Insurance Company, domiciled in Chicago, and to be known as the Superior Mutual Insurance Company.

Among the incorporators are some of the best insurance men of the Race in this territory, among them being Wm. Roland, C. G. Carter, H. G. Streety, Edward Printz, Thos. C. King, W. E. Burns, J. W. Younkins, Emile C. Mixon, S. A. Ware, Miss Suslo Givens, Mrs. A. B. Hannett, Mrs. I. J. Thomas, J. J. Spencer, J. R. Horton, Wm. Watson Jr., Theodore Watts and J. R. Rivers. The company issues policies providing for life, health and accident insurance. The officers and directors of the company are reputable business and professional men from southern states whose assets exceed $200,000. The reputation made for other insurance companies by the men and women establishing the Superior Mutual Insurance Company is a guaranty that this company will do a successful business.---Advertisement.