

New Mexico Masons Fete Ashby Carter

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M.—Ashby B. Carter of Chicago, grand master of Illinois Masons, was entertained here recently at a reception by the Prince Hall lodge.

Here on business for the National Postal Alliance of which he is president, Carter spoke on Masonry and the desirability of its principles becoming general practice to the end that domestic and foreign relationships might be improved.

Others on the program included Richard Burnett, worshipful master of the lodge here; Grand Master Theodore Davis and Past Grand Master M. C. Rhoten. Visitors who spoke were Past Grand Master A. L. Mitchell and the Rev. Jerry W. Ford, both of the Colorado jurisdiction, and Prince Barlow of Texas.
