

Ask Ashby Carter To White House Meeting

WASHINGTON — Ashby B. Carter President of the National Alliance of Postal Employees — a native of Chicago — will be one of the few Negroes attending the National Conference on Industrial Safety in the Departmental Auditorium June 5, 6, and 7.

Carter's invitation came directly from President Truman. It marks the third time the President has invited the NAPE head to Washington White House conferences. Carter is also Grand Master of Prince Hall Masons of Illinois.
