

MEMORIAL SERVICES for the late Ashby B. Carter, president, National Alliance of Postal Employees until his death in 1953, are conducted by the Chicago Branch, National Alliance of Postal Employees at Princeton Hall Masonic Temple, 42nd pl., and Cottage Grove ave.

Ashby Carter was president of the Chicago branch, NAPE, from 1940-1953, and for many years was a leader in local and national civic and fraternal affairs. Left to right around a portrait of Carter are James J. S. Keys, financial secretary, Chicago branch, NAPE;

Leon J. Hillman, president, Chicago branch; Mrs. Ruth I. Watson, national president, Women's Auxiliary; Kenneth Woods, president, District 7; James B. Cobb, national president; Eugene H. Burton, president, District 6, and John Randall, musical chairman, Chicago branch. (Defender photo)