

Highlights Of Eureka Grand Chapter Show Many Activities Of The O.E.S.

By HAZEL WALKER
Grand Reporter

When the Grand Cabinet and over a hundred members of Eureka Grand chapter O. E. S. motored to Champaign, Ill., from Chicago with the Grand Worthy Matron, Mrs. Lola W. Hundley to extend greetings to the Prince of All Grand Lodge, they found in waiting the largest delegation of downstate members in the history of Eureka Grand Chapter.

Members were present from East St. Louis, Monmouth, Elgin, Rock Island, East Moline, and other parts of southern Illinois.

The Alfred Kelkas (she is Ozel-la) held Open House at their beautiful home at 1204 Edes. Mrs. Kelka is Worthy Matron of Deborah Chapter No. 27 and Mr. Kelka is the Worshipful Master of Lone Star Lodge No. 18, Champaign, Ill. Their mother, Mrs. Annabel Pettiford, also held Open House at her home which is in the same block.

Among the Past Grand Matrons and Patrons attending were Bessie E. Greene, L o v e n i a H. Brown, Harriette Bell, Lottie E. Davidson, Ruth I. Brown, Charles Golden of East St. Louis, Walter Z. Martin Past International Grand Patron, Walter Freeman, Adoff Dawsey, and August Aberdee. Lola W. Hundley, Grand Matron; Eugene King, East St. Louis, Grand Patron; Hazel Stillwell, Associate Grand Matron, and William Thompson, Associate Grand Patron.

The Worthy Grand Matron presented a check of over $2,000 to the Grand Lodge.

PRIDE OF HARMONY

The Ways and Means Committee of Pride of Harmony No. 144 is sponsoring a style show and Tom Thumb wedding at the Temple, 809 E. 42nd pl., Sunday, Oct. 23 at 3 p.m. Cora Lee Young is chairman nad Irma Bailey, reporter.

Rebecca D. Boone Chapter No. 128, OES, celebrates its 265th anniversary Monday, Oct. 31, at 8 p.m., honoring Mrs. Josephine Tate, organizer, chartered members, Past Worthy Matrons and Patrons at the Temple. Mrs. Ruth King, chairman; Mrs. Eva Davis, Worthy Matron, Ogdeu Gurdry, Worthy Patron.

Pride of Tyre chapter No. 13 is, having, its Birthday Party after the regular meeting Monday, Oct. 24, at the Masonic Temple, 127 N. Francisco ave. Mrs. Taylor, Worthy Matron, Edward Fulle, Worthy Patron, and Hazel Crein, secretary.

The Fine Arts Guild will be the recipient of a service award in memoriam to the late Ashby B. Carter who was an honorary member of the Fine Arts Guild. The Fine Arts' Guild is an auxiliary to Eureka Grand Chapter, OES., and works solely for the promotion of the educational fund of Eureka Grand Chapter. Mrs. Carter was the first president of the Fine Arts Guild. Mrs. Helen Coley is the 1955 president and Grand Director of Education of Eureka Grand Chapter.

The Amaranth Social club of Hiram chapter No. 91 entertained at their annual Tea, Sunday, Oct. 16, from 3 to 7 p.m. Alma Stewart was chairman, Gertrude Booker, co-chairman, Edna R. Jones, treasurer, Juanita Mitchell, Worthy Matron.

At the same time the Non Parvill Worthy Matrons club had its fourth annual Tea also at the Temple. Mrs. Pearl Lee Jackson, president; Mrs. Luanner Lockett, Tea chairman.

On the same day the Worthy Grand Matron and a party of 22 motored to Waukegan, Ill., to attend the seventh Annual Banquet of the Emblem Chapter No. 49, OES at Genesee Branch YMCA. The Committee was Mallie Greene, Robert Wilson and Annie Bodie.