

Eureka Chapter, OES, Reports On Activities

By MINNIE ALLEN
(Grand Reporter)

Mrs. Hazel Stillwell, Worthy Grand Matron, Eureka Grand chapter, Order of Eastern Star, Prince Hall affiliation, was present in Decatur, Ill., last Wednesday to bestow greetings to the Most Worshipful Prince Hall Grand Lodge of Illinois, F. and A. M. during its 91st annual session.

At the same time, Mrs. Stillwell and her staff present a gift to the Most Worshipful Grand Master, Obed E. Vandenberg. A presentation of $2,049 was also made to the Grand Lodge for maintenance of the Masonic and Eastern Star Home in Rock Island, Ill.

Other grand officers attending the session were Eleanor Wedlow, Deputy District Advisor, Youth Fraternity; Geraldine Rachelle, Deputy District Lecturer; Edna Burke, Deputy District Lecturer; Millie C. Henderson, director blood bank; Gwendolyn Dyett, director arts and craft;

Mable Youngblood, director education department; Margaret Clay, director, nurses unit; Minnie Allen, reporter; Isey McLaren, warden; Alice R. Child, organist;

Madeline Oliver, Grand Matron in East; Lucy Collins, chaplain;

Ozelle Kelker, Grand Ruth; Carmen Wilson, Grand Adah; Esther L. Greir, lecturer; Anna Mac Lancaster and Gertrude Coleman, trustee of the home; Agatha G. Goldsmith, associate conductor; Mayme B. Henigan, conductor; Alice I. Robins, secretary; Naomi V. McKissic, treasurer; James E. Smith, associate Grand Patron; Burtella McDougal, Associate Grand Matron.

Also present were Past Worthy Grand Matrons Bessie G. Green, Lottie E. Davidson, Harriet Bell, and Lola W. Hundley; Past Worthy Grand Patrons Adolph Dorsey, Walter Z. Martin, August Abadie, Charles E. Golden, Walter E. Freeman and Eugene King.

Eureka Grand chapter's school of instruction in the first district was held last month in Carter Memorial Hall under the leadership of Mrs. Esther L. Greir, grand lecturer.

Officers officiating in the opening came from downstate chapters in Danville and Champaign, Ill. Attendance was near the 250 mark.