

OES Holds 70th Meeting On West Side

Eureka Grand Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star is holding its 70th annual meeting on Chicago's West Side, at Tyre Masonic Temple, 127 No. Francisco, more than 700 delegates from all over the state are in attendance.

The meeting, which opened Tuesday will end tomorrow.

They have an educational fund of which Miss Sara Watts of Jacksonville was the recipient of a $500 scholarship to Illinois State Normal university, Bloomington, IH.

Contributions are made yearly to the Chicago Defender Charity Christmas fund and youth programs of Chicago. This organization is responsible for the up-keep of the Masonic and Eastern Star located in Rock Island, Ill. through donations of more than $8,000 yearly.

Pride of Tyre Chapter No. 130, OES is the entertaining chapter for this meeting. This year is closing a successful administration of Mrs. Hazel Stillwell who is the Worthy Grand Matron for the entire State of Illinois with 4700 members.

She is a business and professional woman engaged in many civic, religious and fraternal activities. Mrs. Mattie Thomas is worthy matron of the host chapter on the west side.