

ST. GEORGE'S COMMANDERY.

Chicago Daily Tribune (1872-1922); May 16, 1883;

ProQuest Historical Newspapers Chicago Tribune (1849 - 1986)

pg. 6

ST. GEORGE'S COMMANDERY.

The third annual assembly of St. George Com-mandery, No. 4, K. T., was held at Battery D Ar-mory last night. Some 500 persons were pres-ent, the program including dancing and refresh-ments, besides the music and drill. Capt.-Gen. H. E. Moore acted as drillmaster, and the ma-neuvres executed under his supervision were very creditable. The program entire consisted of overtures, polkas and selections, the grand march, and inspection and exhibiting drill. The dancing was kept up until a late hour.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.