

Isaac Washington

Masons to cite brother

Prince Hall Masons in the state of Illinois will gather at the Chicago-Sheraton Hotel, Sunday, May 27, to honor Brother Isaac Washington as "Mason of the Year," the Daily Defender learned.

Washington, a 32d degree

Mason, is editor of the Prince Hall Freemason Journal, a quarterly magazine published for Masonic membership in Illinois.

The banquet, presented by Garden City Lodge No. 59, will be held in the East Room commencing at 6 p.m.

Washington, of 550 E. 105th st., is a member of Antioch Baptist church, is grand director of public relations, a member of Western Consistory No. 28 and Arabic Temple No. 44 (Shrine). He was selected from among 5,500 Prince Hall Masons in the state.

Washington is married and the father of two children.

Isaac Washington